Senior Citizens Night Oct. 29

The Lionettes held their regular meeting Sept. 23, at the home of Vera Mitchell. The attendance was good as the Lionettes had the pleasure of being the first ones to view the slides that Jay Scott took on the Boy Scout Jamboree trip to England. It was announced that the baseball pool still has a few numbers available for those who are interested.

The club has set Oct. 29, for Senior Citizens' night at which time the films taken last year will be shown and more films will be taken this year. After the business and entertainment, Lionettes Lola Findlay and Bernice Buehler assisted Vera Mitchell in serving a delicious lunch during which the key prize was won by Dorothy Myers.

Lomond Church To Be Dedicated

For the congregation of Bethany Evangelical Lutheran Church at Lomond, Sunday, Oct. 6, is a festive day. At the eleven o'clock service that morning the church will be dedicated. Dr. Mars A. Dale, president of the Canada District of the Evangelical Lutheran Church will perform the Act of Dedication.

Following the afternoon service which also is to be held in the church, commencing at three o'clock, the parish house; the parsonage is to be dedicated. After the dedication there will be "open house" with refreshments provided by the ladies of the parish.

It is interesting to note that the other congregations in the parish will soon be celebrating their fiftieth anniversaries while the Lomond congregation was formally organized only last June. With the new alignment of parishes and the increase in the number of pastors serving in southern Alberta, a parsonage was constructed at Lomond midway between the congregation at Enchant and the other at Milo. The parish is proud of their parish house as is the Lomond congregation of its church. A cordial invitation is extended to the public to attend these services of dedication.

The production of potash from wood ashes was an important Canadian industry from 1800 to 1870. Land being cleared for agricultural use yielded large amounts of timber, which was burned and the ashes leached and dried. Total Canadian exports of potash were 27,000,000 pounds in 1850, but the industry ended in 1870 when natural potassium deposits came into use.

United Church Session Held

The High River Presbytery continued its fall sessions in Nanton on Tuesday, Sept. 17, with Rev. S. R. Hunt of Turner Valley, presiding. All the other ministerial members were present except Rev. Peter Dawson, who was in Edmonton attending a conference committee on Overseas Missions. Rev. W. H. Moss was welcomed as the successor to Rev. C. D. Powell at Nanton. Regret was expressed that Rev. J. Sorochoan and family would be leaving High River at the end of September. Most of the pastoral charges were represented by a lay delegate in spite of the busy season. Among the visitors were Rev. A. D. Stadel of Regina, superintendent of Missions; Rev. L. S. Christie of Vancouver, field secretary of Evangelism and Social Service, and Rev. Morse Johnson of Edmonton, field secretary of Christian Education.

Since the last meeting of presbytery, Rev. J. S. Clarke had moved to Nanton, leaving Vulcan vacant and Rev. J. Sorochoan was about to leave High River to become secretary of the Bible Society in Northern Alberta. It was announced that Rev. J. M. Fawcett, D.D. of Calgary would supply High River until June 30, next. The Pastoral Relations Committee was asked to keep in touch with Vulcan until a minister could be secured. Presbytery heard excellent reports of the work of Wells Robinson, student supply at Milo and was pleased to learn that there

High River Presbytery

WA and WMS Hold Joint Rally at Vulcan

A joint rally of the High River Presbytery Women's Association and Women's Missionary Society members was held recently in the Vulcan United Church with approximately 100 ladies registered for the day-long proceedings.

Registration commenced at 9:30 in the morning followed by an address of welcome by Mrs. C. MacMillan, president of the Vulcan United W.M.S. Mrs. Byran Brown of Nanton, Presbyterial President of the W.M.S., then took the chair and business pertaining to the Women's Missionary Society was then conducted, assisted by Mrs. Mays of Nanton, secretary-treasurer. Following this Mrs. Sanderman of Okotoks, who is Presbyterial president of the Women's Association conducted the meeting in business associated with this group, assisted by Mrs. Noble, also of Okotoks.

The morning devotional period was conducted by Mrs. Latiff of Champion.

Minutes of the joint rally of 1956 were read and approved followed by the treasurer's reports from the W.M.S. and the W.A.

Mrs. J. Sorochoan and Mrs. McLeod reported on the committee report on the forthcoming Plebiscite issue which is soon to come before the public.

Highlights of literature available to the church organizations was then discussed by Mrs. McKelvie of Cayley who is Presbyterial secretary for the W.M.S. Many samples of literature were on display and those wishing to purchase any copies were free to do so.

Ladies of the Vulcan United Women's Association catered to a very enjoyable luncheon on the church hall.

The afternoon session opened at 1:45 p.m. with ladies from High River in charge of the devotional.

Guest speaker for the afternoon was Mrs. L. M. Rose of Toronto Dominion Conference president of the Women's Association. Mrs. Rose brought greetings from the Dominion Association and spoke of the work being undertaken at the present to unite these two organizations. She suggested this union might be accomplished about 1960.

Rev. Knight of Blackie then expressed some further views on the forthcoming liquor plebiscite.

Following this Mrs. Doug Galbraith of Vulcan, rendered two solos accompanied by Mrs. W. W. Almond at the organ.

Roll call by representation of the various points in the Presbytery then took place with representatives present from Aldersyde, Blackie, Carmangay, Cayley, Claresholm, Granum, High River, Nanton, Okotoks, Parkland and Vulcan.

Mrs. Fowler, past president of the High River W.M.S. Presbyterial, then introduced the second guest speaker of the afternoon in the person of Mrs. Tsuruchi Watari, a Japanese Christian teacher who has been touring Canada for the past few months at the invitation of the Dominion Board of Missions.

Mrs. Watari gave an inspiring address telling of her work as a teacher for the past twenty years, in a Christian school. Amazed with our great expanse of farm area, she compared our farms to those of Japan, which average about 2½ acres. And the people must plant two or three crops a year in order to get enough to eat. A question period followed.

Rev. E. Loree of Okotoks brought the rally to a flattering conclusion with a benediction, following which the ladies of the Vulcan W.M.S. served tea to those present.

Ask Lifting of Witnesses Ban

Jehovah's Witnesses of the Vulcan congregation met Sept. 29, to approve a petition asking the Dominion Republic to lift its ban of last July 25, restricting the religious activity of the movement there.

According to Amuel McKee, president minister of the Vulcan congregation, the lengthy petition cited specific names and places of police brutality that were personally authenticated by eight of the ten American missionaries departed Aug. 3, from the Dominican Republic. The missionaries related their experiences at a regional assembly in Baltimore, where the petition was originally adopted Aug. 24, by 33,091 of Jehovah's Witnesses in attendance.

These treatments apparently affect rate of nitrification throughout the growing season. Residues which nitrify rapidly and release greater amounts of available nitrogen during the growing season result in higher yields and protein content of wheat than those residues which nitrify slowly and release smaller amounts of available nitrogen. This is in agreement with some work completed in Utah. It was found in Utah that nitrogen is more effective in increasing protein content the nearer it is applied to harvest. Under the conditions of the Manitoba experiment the use of legumes, either as a green manure or for hay, results in higher yields and protein content of wheat than where these crops are not grown.

The results of this research point out the value of using a legume such as sweet clover occasionally in the grain-fallow rotation. If sweet clover is grown it should not be allowed to grow over 18 to 24 inches high before being plowed down, otherwise the rotting process in the soil may take several years, and a depression of yields might result, especially under dry conditions.

Traffic signs were designed and placed by experts for your protection. Obey them to the letter and live longer.

Harvesting Nearly Completed

The fine weather of the past two weeks, which lasted until Wednesday of this week, has allowed harvesting in the district to be fairly well completed except for flax and mustard crops. North of the Corner Store there is still some wheat to be combined as well.

Tuesday night there was a light shower of rain accompanied by an electrical storm, with some interruptions of power service Wednesday morning. The forecast calls for considerably cooler weather on Thursday.

At Sarcee Reserve

Highlanders Take Part In Atomic Exercise

About 25 members of "A" Company, Calgary Highlanders from Vulcan, Champion and Carmangay, along with some 400 other militiamen from Southern Alberta, received their first experience in simulated nuclear warfare when they took part in a special army manoeuvre, Exercise Kickoff, at the Sarcee Reserve on Saturday and Sunday.

With the new concept of warfare demanding speed to exploit the advantage gained by use of a nuclear weapon, the foot-slogging role of the infantryman is almost a thing of the past. Lacking the armoured personnel carriers with which infantry will eventually be equipped, the militiamen on Sunday rode into action on Centurion and Sherman tanks.

Members of the regular force, Lord Strathcona's Horse and of the Airborne Engineers assisted in the exercise and aircraft of the Calgary Naval Reserve provided air support for both the "enemy" and the "defenders."

Highlight of the main attack Sunday morning was the exploding of a simulated atomic bomb. Even from Highlander's position two miles away, it looked and sounded very realistic.

With The District Agriculturist Hugh Michael

Valuable Training At Low Cost Knowledge, experience, or training, in ones chosen field of endeavour is usually a very expensive process. It is often said that experience is the best teacher, this old saying is no doubt true, however it could be argued, while experience is the best teacher it is often the most expensive and slowest. We learn by experience much quicker if we have a background of knowledge to draw from.

This background knowledge so necessary for a farm boy or girl may be added to very profitably by attendance at an Agricultural School. The Schools of Agriculture have been in operation for a long time, since 1913 to be exact. Over this long period of service to Alberta's young farm women and men, they have assisted in moulding a great many of our present agricultural leaders and successful farmers. The records of achievement and the contributions, made by our Schools of Agriculture are indeed worthy of note.

Each of the Provincial Schools of Agriculture are residential schools with modern dormitories that are attractive places to live. Many valuable experiences and friendships are gained, which will be remembered and treasured long after graduation. Costs of attendance are very modest, amounting to only $300 or $350 a term, which would include board and room, classroom supplies, incidentals, spending money, etc.

During the last few years special emphasis has been directed towards making the course for farm girls useful and interesting. The Home Economics course for farm girls is designed to provide helpful training to young women who expect to spend their lives in the farm home. Courses of instruction for girls include, Fabrics and Dress, Foods and Nutrition, Record Keeping, and Typewriting.

Any farm boy or girl who has completed their regular academic studies, and who feels that they would like additional training in their chosen field of farming or homemaking should investigate the possibilities of attending a School of Agriculture. Farm girls especially should not pass up this opportunity of gaining further knowledge which will benefit them for the remainder of their life. Additional particulars may be obtained from this office or from the Olds' School of Agriculture by dropping in or writing.

Crop Residues, Fertilizers, and Their Effect on Protein Content of Wheat

We have recently received some information regarding the effect of crop residue and fertilizer treatment on the yield and protein content of wheat. This research was carried out in Manitoba, and the results were recently published. Since the location of this work was in Manitoba we could not expect similar results in this location; however the general principals and relations which were discovered could be considered basic and would have a general application. According to this work it was found that the yield of wheat is influenced by the supply of available nitrogen early in the season. This could be especially true where considerable amounts of trash cover cover existed. It is a well-known fact now that a heavy trash cover may cause a yield depression, due to the shortage of available nitrogen to the growing crop. This is caused by the available nitrogen being tied up within the soil in connection with the decomposition of the crop residue. In the Manitoba experiment when 16-20-0 was applied increased yields were particularly noticeable on the second crop after fallow or the first crop after breaking land from grass. It did not affect the protein content, apparently because the nitrogen was used up by increased early growth.

Protein content of wheat is influenced by crop residue treat-

Myers Brothers Enjoying South African Safari

Realizing a boyhood ambition, Richard Myers, Lake McGregor district farmer, and his brother, Vernon, well-known publisher and oil authority of Calgary, are now on a safari at Beira in South Africa.

The brothers left by plane a month ago, stopping off at New York city to visit with their sister, Ruth Myers, en route to their adventure.

To date they have enjoyed visiting Paris, Rome, Athens, Johannesburg and many other places long-dreamed of and they will visit London en route home.

Recent letters received by Mrs. Richard Myers and by Mrs. A. Myers, mother of the travellers, tell of hunting wild animals in South Africa. The brothers expect to arrive home about the middle of this month and will likely have some fine stories to tell of their experiences.

Vernon Myers, who like his brother, Richard, was born and raised in the district, publishes the Myers Oil Week and Oil Daily papers in Calgary, as well as the Myers Stock Market News.

Improve Connemara Road

The widening and rebuilding of the road from the Little Bow River straight west of Vulcan to its intersection with No. 2 Highway at Connemara will be welcomed by Vulcan motorists who prefer to use this route to Calgary in preference to the gravelled No. 23 Highway.

An M.D. of Willow Creek road crew is now at work widening the road and eliminating some of the many dips.

When 23 Highway is finally hard-surfaced, traffic on the Connemara road will be reduced considerably, but it will still be heavily travelled for the next two years at least.

Sloughs Dry Up

Very noticeable this year is the drying-up of many of the smaller sloughs throughout the district and the reduction in area of the larger sloughs and small lakes.

On the whole, this has been welcomed by farmers and many slough-bottoms have felt the ploughblade this summer for the first time in many years.

It points up, though, the reduced rainfall this past spring and summer and places 1957 in the category of a comparatively dry year. But this has had a good effect, too, in that the protein content of this year's wheat crop is much higher than it has been during the past few "wet" years.

Watch For School Buses

The practice of some motorists in risking accidents by failing to stop when school buses are discharging passengers is causing alarm and complaints, according to Paul Lawrence, Safety Director for the Alberta Safety Council.

Police attention is being drawn to these complaints, as the Motor Vehicles and Traffic Act has certain provisions for the protection of school children using buses.

One section of the act says that "When a conveyance which bears either the sign 'School Bus' or 'School Van' has stopped to receive or discharge passengers, no driver of a vehicle shall overtake and pass such conveyance until all passengers who are about to enter or leave the same are safely clear of the path of the vehicle."

Another section of the act says "When a conveyance which bears the sign 'School Bus' or 'School Van' has stopped to receive or discharge passengers, no driver of a vehicle approaching from an opposite direction shall pass such conveyance at a rate of speed greater than 25 miles per hour."

There are fairly stiff penalties for those who violate these provisions of the act. On conviction for the first offence, the fine may be $50 and costs. There may be a fine of $100 and costs for the second offence and $200 and costs for the third or subsequent offences.

The standard practice in discharging children who must cross the road is to have them pass in front of the bus. They usually do so with great caution this does not relieve the motorist coming up behind the bus from making a full stop until he is sure all the children are in the clear.

As all school buses are painted in the distinctive 'school bus yellow' and have black letters five inches high spelling out "School Bus" or "SchoolVan," it is felt that motor car drivers should have no difficulty in identifying the vehicles carrying school children.

Nevertheless, school administrators and parents are greatly alarmed over the failure of many motorists to stop when a school bus is taking on or discharging passengers.

To some extent this may be a matter of enforcement. Safety Council officials feel that citizens and the school bus drivers should do their utmost to co-operate with the police and take the license number of motor cars which violate the act, if such can be obtained. Parents also urge their children to support the efforts of the school boards and bus drivers by observing proper conduct at all times on the bus or van.

The value of having school patrols on the buses also is being recognized to a wider extent. Some Alberta school divisions are giving more attention to this phase of protection and it is expected that the system will be expanded this year. These patrols have no authority to enforce traffic laws on the highway but they can serve a useful purpose in assisting the bus driver during the loading or unloading of passengers and maintaining supervision of the pupils just as school patrols do in the cities.

In some states of the U.S. school buses operated standard revolving or flashing red lights, similar to the lights on top of police cars. These lights flash when the vehicle has stopped thus helping to alert other drivers to use great caution.

If it were thought advisable to adopt such measures in Alberta an amendment to the present legislation might be necessary.

LOVE... THE GREATEST GIFT

I've never met Leon Ackerman, 910 Seventeenth Street, N.W., Washington 6, D.C., but I intend to write him a letter one of these days to thank him. I'll tell you why.

Yesterday I was thumbing through a big Financial paper trying to keep posted on the world of business. My thoughts, I assure you, were 100% materialistic. Then, staring up from the paper at me was a full-page advertisement, which must have cost Mr. Ackerman a pretty penny. Here's what the advertisement said:

"Love... the greatest gift. He who understands love understands God and God is Love."

"Ye have heard that it hath been said, Thou shalt love thy neighbor, and hate thine enemy. But I say unto you, Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you."

"If a man say, I love God, and hate his brother, he is a liar; for he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, how can he love God whom he hath not seen?"

"And this commandment have we from Him, That he who loveth God loves his brother also."

"Perfect Love casteth out Fear." And the advertisement then ended with a layman's prayer:

"Father may we be ever mindful that it is in loving our fellow men that we truly love Thee."

As I say, I don't know Mr. Ackerman and haven't the slightest notion what his purpose might have been in spending all that money to quote Scripture in a financial paper. Whatever his purpose, he succeeded in shifting the thoughts of one reader from materialistic matters to spiritual ones.

Not that I am ashamed of materialistic thoughts. Christ was extremely practical and did not hesitate to put His mind to materialistic matters. Charity requires that someone pay a great deal of attention to producing the wherewithal upon which charity often depends. I've no liking for the dreamy do-gooders who preach charity but fail to buckle down and do the work that has to be done before there's anything around to give. And I detest the socialist who wants to share the fruits of everybody else's labor, but gets quite cagey when it is suggested that he share what he possesses. Nevertheless, it was thrilling experience to leap from concentrated attention on material things into the more important spiritual level of thought, and read again, in the bold type of an advertisement, about the Divine Paradox. So I owe Leon Ackerman, whoever he may be, a vote of thanks.

Should Grass Be Planted Among Windbreak Trees

Native trees in the prairie region of Western Canada usually grow in "tight" clumps where undergrowth is sparse and contains little or no grass. Experience has also shown that if grass becomes established among windbreak trees their growth is usually and quickly adversely affected. Every effort should, therefore, be made to prevent grass gaining a foothold among these trees, states John Walker, Canada Department of Agriculture, Forest Nursery Station, Indian Head, Sask.

Planters are also advised against sowing grass near or among their windbreak trees, otherwise valuable, and often scarce, moisture, required for best growth of trees, will be intercepted and utilized by the grass roots before it reaches the tree roots. This also means that trees are deprived of nutrients which must first be dissolved in water before being absorbed by their roots.

Many planters, no doubt, consider planting grass as a means of preventing undesirable growth of weeds, of eliminating cultivation, or, perhaps, of obtaining a uniform soil cover.

The ideal pattern of maintenance and care of windbreak trees is to establish a natural forest floor among the trees completely shaded by overhanging branches, and to provide needed moisture and plant food by keeping cultivated strips beyond and alongside the area covered by overhanging branches. A windbreak containing a few closely-planted trees and rows is visualized here.

Where the windbreak consists of widely-spaced, more or less individual rows of trees, the trees can be kept in vigorous growth, only by maintaining cultivated strips on each side of every row. Where low-cost facilities for irrigating the trees are available, the effect of grass will be less severe.

If there is serious erosion among trees on account of steep surface grade a grass cover may be necessary. Under such circumstances the importance of tree growth becomes secondary.

Crop Report

Harvesting operations are in full swing and progressing much better than expected. Barley and oat crops have been harvested with barley averaging about 27 bushels and oats around 32. Some oats were used for greenfeed. Some poor crops have held down the average of the good stands.

Wheat is running about 18 bushels on seeded acreage. The crops to the south are showing the best yield. About twenty-five percent have been harvested and another week of good weather should see all harvesting completed except for the Redwood Flax. Flax is about five percent harvested and running 11 bushels. However the flax crop is exceptionally poor and a lot of it will not be harvested at all.

"My Life Insurance man did a grand job for me, Ed"

All talk over the back fence isn't about sport, or politics, or television programs. Very often it's about such vital things as looking after the family and having enough money to retire on. Your life insurance man is well equipped to solve these problems. He is trained to analyse all the facts about a family's future requirements. He serves Canadian families by offering practical plans to meet individual needs. Life Insurance representatives have exceptional training opportunities today. Their own companies provide them with basic courses covering a wide variety of subjects. Through the Life Underwriters Association of Canada they have access to the experience of many able men who have helped to make Canadians the world's best-insured people. This Association has a 2-year training program for its members. And, in addition, for those who desire to pursue more advanced studies, there is a 3-year university extension course leading to the Association's designation of Chartered Life Underwriter (C.L.U.). This thorough training plus practical experience in helping people explains why millions of Canadians have welcomed the services of the modern Life Underwriter.

Good Will Service Club

The regular monthly meeting of the Good Will Service Club was held on Thursday evening, Sept. 26, at the home of Mrs. Reg. Frost, when 26 members answered roll call by bringing an article for an auction sale. There were six visitors present.

The meeting opened by repeating the Club Creed in unison. Minutes of previous meeting were read and approved. Correspondence was read and consisted of thank you notes and a letter from the C.N.E.B. A motion was made and passed that the club canvass for the C.N.E.B. Bridal showers were then the subject under discussion. A motion was made and carried that in future showers be held in the evening unless bride-elect prefers the afternoon. A shower for Miss Leona Voys was planned and date set for Wednesday evening, Oct. 16. Also a shower for Miss Norma Montgomery which will be held in the evening on Oct. 30. The annual chicken supper was planned and the date set for Oct. 26. Also the price to be the same this year as in the past, $1.00 for adults and 50c for children under 12.

The club was asked to cater for a coming wedding reception and agreed to do so.

The treasurer's report was then given. Also a report on annual bingo. Followed by the nickel draw which was won by one of the guests, Mrs. Hazel Carpenter.

The meeting was then adjourned for the auction sale which provided a good deal of amusement under the capable hands of our very good auctioneer, Mrs. Audrey McKay.

A very lovely lunch was then served by the hostess and her assistants to bring a pleasant evening to a close.

Birthday Club

The September meeting of the Birthday Club was held at the home of Mrs. P. Degensteins with sixteen members and one visitor present.

Among other regular business, plans were made for a social evening to be held for the members and their families. An interesting contest was held by Mrs. Jack Brooks and was won by Mrs. Henry Crawford. Mrs. Henry Thompson won the draw prize.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. J. Chambers on Oct. 10.

At the close of the meeting the hostess and her assistants served a delicious lunch, to end a very pleasant afternoon.

MIL0

Miss Janice Bertrand, who is attending the University of Alberta in Calgary, visited at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Bertrand last weekend.

The C.G.I.T. held their first meeting of the season and officers for the new term have been chosen as follows: President, Sharon Phillips; vice-president, Colleen Beechman; secretary, Donna Bittorf; treasurer, Kay Peterson; social convener, Sheila Brown; lunch committee, Helen Auestad.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Shackleton, formerly teachers at Milo, now of Calgary, visited friends in the district. Mrs. Walter B. Marsden, one of the early settlers of the village, visited Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Thompson, Sr., and other friends.

Guy Umscheid of Portland, Ore., is visiting at the home of his brother, Clarence Umscheid.

The last week has been very favorable for harvesting. It is estimated that at least 75% of wheat will be harvested by the end of the month. Some farmers have reported difficulty in preventing wheat from cracking due to alternate wet and dry periods.

Milo high school students are this year taking drama, and strange, weird and wonderful are the dialects heard as the Swedes seek to imitate the Irish and the Norwegians the Scotch. Perhaps in some far distant day Milo will boast a "Workshop 14".

Sales are the order of the day, with the trainload sale at the Red & White Store and the Fall Fair Sale at Phillip's Hardware.

Quite a number of nimbros from the city are hunting ducks and geese. They report that ducks are plentiful but only a few geese have come down from the north.

The village of Milo will observe a Fire Prevention Week from Oct. 6 to 12. The Fire Brigade would like all householders to eliminate possible fire hazards and check all heating appliances. At least one practice with fire equipment is planned. Lets all co-operate, the next fire you attend may be your own.

Larry Umscheid and Charley Shield have had wells drilled on their respective farms. Both obtain a good supply of water we hope.

The face of nature is being changed. The road west of Charley Shield, which has circumvented a large slough, is being straightened by the County of Vulcan. It will take thousands of yards of dirt and about three weeks time. This act will certainly improve the highway, but it does eliminate the beauty of winding roads.

Another crew is busy constructing cisterns and a foundation under the Revelstoke house occupied by Mr. and Mrs. O. Johnson.

Art Isleib of Spokane, Wash., visited at the home of his sister-in-law, Mrs. George Vennesland.

Crop Report
As requested, the following is a crop and weather report for Farrow district from spring to the present time.

All in all, this has been more or less a drastic year for many districts but it always seems worse in one's own. Spring started out the best in years and crops were in early compared to the past few years and were doing very well until the roof fell in, as it were.

During the latter part of May and the first part of June the weather became very dry and hot. Cut worms hit with a vengeance, causing a great deal of damage resulting in many crops having to be reseeded making them late and then on June 5, hail blackened practically everything, setting the crops back again to where they were as late as they have been in previous years. From then on growth was slow. Frost hit in some parts July 26, causing some damage.

Due to late reseeding and fall rains, grain has been slow in ripening. On about the 14th of September frost hit very hard practically finishing the late grain completely and knocking most all the wheat from a 2 or 3 to a 4 or 5 and maybe lower.

Since the frost, we have had ideal harvest weather and everyone is going strong. Soarse grains are approximately 95% threshed; wheat, 40% flax, nil; rye 100%. If the weather holds for another week or 10 days, harvesting in this district should be pretty well completed.

EASTWAY

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Campbell of Calgary spent the weekend at the Stuart Campbell home.

Mr. and Mrs. Mel Marshall were weekend visitors in the district.

Mr. and Mrs. McMullen were roused out of bed at 4:00 a.m. Sunday morning to the sound of their phone ringing. It was Sonny wanting them to meet him in High River. That was pleasant news even so early in the day.

Saturday saw duck hunters converging on us from all sides. We'd like to know who the joker was who gave the Calgary newspapers their information. The least he could have done was told "we natives" where the ducks were so we could pass the news onto the inquiring hunters. Another time when we want the hunters they'll think someone is crying "Wolf" (or duck) again.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wyatt visited the Bar U and Prince of Wales Ranches on Sunday.

Congratulations to Gordon and Joan Laycraft on the arrival of their new daughter.

Mrs. Bill Gooch and family of Queenstown; Mr. and Mrs. Dale Hood of Arrowwood were Sunday visitors at the George Gooch home. Sunday visitors at the Rushfeldt's included Mrs. Chris Nelson and boys, Mrs. Jack Long and Mrs. Pal Nelson.

Wood is reduced to pulp either by chemical action or by a mechanical grinding process. The wood fibres left when the water of the pulp has drained off are pressed and dried to become paper.

The ladies of Emmanuel Church Guild were entertained at their regular September meeting at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. R. H. Johnson in Vulcan. Mr. Johnson told of attending the dinner at Calgary for the Right Rev. C.N.H. Wilkinson, Bishop of Amritsar, India. The Bishop was one of the guest speakers at the meeting of the Dominion Women's Auxiliary of the Anglican Church of Canada that was held in Calgary.

Plans were made for the annual bazaar, tea and sale of home cooking to be held on Nov. 7, at 3 p.m.

This FALL for your GRASSLANDS and STUBBLE

BUY AND APPLY NITROGEN

... the plant food your crop uses most for bigger, better yields in 1958!

Your crops use more Nitrogen than any other plant food - for example, 40 bushels of wheat take away 47 lbs. of Nitrogen from your soil; 2 tons of brome hay take away over 60 lbs. of Nitrogen. This plant food must be replaced or your crops will be starved.

Spread Elephant Brand High Nitrogen Fertilizers* on stubble or pasture NOW! Next Spring, even before you can get on your land, grasslands are growing with fall-applied Nitrogen. Nitrogen put on stubble land this Fall speeds decomposition and is available as vital plant food when you seed in the Spring.

FOR GRASSLANDS

Nitrogen applied in the Fall means better forage growth. It means pasture is ready for grazing earlier, feeds more livestock and regrows faster. When you can put twice as many head on every acre, get them on the land from 3 to 4 weeks sooner in the Spring and keep them there longer, you make more money.

What's more, forage grown with Elephant Brand High Nitrogen Fertilizers* tastes better and is richer in essential proteins and minerals - you'll see the difference in fatter steers and heifers or increased milk production!

Melting snows carry Elephant Brand High Nitrogen Fertilizer to the root zone.

GET MORE FROM YOUR LAND WITH ELEPHANT BRAND

You can apply Elephant Brand High Nitrogen Fertilizer with a Universal Fertilizer Attachment by removing the bottom ends of the attachment hoses from the top of the grain ribbon tubes... with a wear-out grain drill with the furrow openers removed... or with a regular broadcast spreader.

FOR STUBBLE

Nitrogen on stubble speeds up decomposition of valuable crop residues. In Spring, plant food from both crop residue and Nitrogen Fertilizer is available to the new crop. Young plants benefit immediately from the readily available food in Elephant Brand High Nitrogen Fertilizers*.

When you choose your High Nitrogen Fertilizer* from the Elephant Brand line, you add these benefits to your Fall-Fertilizing program.

HIGH ANALYSIS — more plant food in each bag, best value for your fertilizer dollar.

HIGH AVAILABILITY — all Elephant Brand's plant food content can be used by the growing plant.

HIGH WATER SOLUBILITY — dissolve readily in soil moisture to give quick-acting, easily absorbed plant food.

FREE FLOWING — Uniform pellet-sized granules; fast and easy to apply.

Any member with an article of hobby or handicraft is asked to send it along for the handicraft display which is to be a feature of the conference.

The past week has been ideal for harvesting and many farmers are now finished combining for this season. For the most part all that remains is flax and a few late crops where grain was reseeded.

Wheat yields are reported all the way from 15 to 40 bushels; oats run from 40 to 80, and barley from 50 to 70 bushels, so it looks like it has been a good year despite all the drawbacks encountered since spring seeding began. A field of rape made 1300 pounds, another made 680 pounds per acre. There has been no report on durum wheat and flax harvesting is just getting underway as this is written. Baling is also underway and late summerfallow is getting attention in some fields. With continued good weather the farmers will soon know how wealthy or how poor they are.

HABEAS CORPUS A SAFEGUARD

In many kinds of legal action a writ of Habeas Corpus is mentioned. The Habeas Corpus Act was passed in the reign of Charles II to safeguard a citizen from wrongful detention, or indefinite imprisonment at the behest of a ruler. In brief, it provides that a prisoner has the right to be told before a judge exactly why he has been arrested. If the reason for the arrest is valid, the judge must name a date for the trial; if not, the judge must free the prisoner. Before this Act, it was common practise for a monarch to order the arrest of anyone who was guilty of no greater crime than displeasing him.
